

CHRIST THE KING LAY READER SCHEDULE
MARCH -- JUNE 2010

Greetings, Fellow Lay Readers of Christ the King!

Here's the schedule for March, April, May and June 2010. As we get to know and adjust to our new Rector, Fr. Jack Lynch, we will be shifting into some new ways of doing things.

Some continuing reminders (some changes):

- First, with respect to the Holy Eucharist: The second Lay Reader has normally led the saying of the Nicene Creed at 10:30 (at 8:00, the single Lay Reader has done it). Fr. Jack has been leading it for the few services he has officiated at since his arrival two weeks ago. Stay flexible and don't let too long a pause transpire.
- Second, also with respect to the Eucharist, Fr. Jack has also prepared the second chalice when there has been one. Again, stay loose: he is learning as well as we.
- For an advance look at lessons and psalms according to the current Lectionary, go to: <http://www.io.com/~kellywp/index.html>. When you get to the calendar pages at the web site, be sure to click on the RCL link, and not the BCP link, for the Sunday you need the lessons for.
- On occasion, an Epistle comes from one of the Letters of John: I John, II John, III John. In order to avoid confusion with the Gospel according to John, these lessons should not be announced as, "A reading from John," or, "A reading from the Book of John." Say something like, "A reading from the First Letter of John."

More current news:

- Palm Sunday is March 28; Easter is April 4. Fr. Jack has scheduled services all throughout Holy Week. The schedule for the Holy Week services on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday is on the second page of the schedule that follows this letter (Fr. Jack was still working on the Easter Vigil at press time). If you find that you must miss one of your scheduled services, please arrange for a substitute. Several of the services do not involve the Eucharist.
- Fr. Jack has re-instituted Wednesday evening services. I have included these in the schedule.

I will be traveling to England to teach again during this term: May 31 – July 6. I again plan to have the July – October schedule prepared before I leave.
